POLY TEAM IS PRACTISING DAILY ON ITS OWN FIELD

Preparations Are Under Way For Intercollegiates Which Start on May 4.

FIRST MATCH ON SATURDAY.

Pennsylvania Military College Will Be Opponent at Chester—L. E. Stoddard, '99, and Army Officers Stationed Here Practise With Team.

In preparation for the Intercollegiates, which are to be held at Fort Hamilton, starting May 4, the University Polo Team is practising daily on the new field north of the Armory. As a preliminary to this meet, the Pennsylvania Military College will oppose Yale at Chester, Penn., on April 28. Louis E. Stoddard, '99, a former member of the American International Polo Team, and Army officers stationed here have been playing against the team in order to accustom them to the strong opposition which they will encounter later on in the season.

The new field is about two thirds of the regulation size, measuring 600 by 400 feet. It is in excellent shape and is expected to aid materially in the development of the team.

Following the opening match against Pennsylvania Military College on April 28, will come the Intercollegiates at Fort Hamilton. In addition to the University, teams are entered from Cornell, Harvard, Norwich, Pennsylvania, Princeton, Virginia Military Institute and West Point. Both Princeton and West Point are reported to have unusually strong teams.

In the preliminary game on May 4, the University Team will meet Cornell. Should they win this contest, they will oppose the winner of the Harvard-Norwich match in the semi-finals on May 10. The deciding game for the championship will come on May 16.

An extensive schedule has been arranged for the balance of the season and many of the best college teams in the country will compete.

With a wealth of experienced material, recruited mainly from the indoor polo squad, the prospects of a successful season are unusually bright, according to Major Hoyle. The team has been strengthened by the addition of J. O. Bulkley, 1923, who was prevented from playing this winter because he was captain of the Hockey Team.

Captain Hopkins, who was unable to play in the final round for the indoor title, is again in shape and is playing Number 3 position. The other members of the first team or Blues, as they

FENCING CAPTAIN IS ELECTED TO LEAD TEAM NEXT YEAR.

Huntington Chosen at Annual Banquet Last Night—Blatchford Wins Managerial Competition.

At the close of the Annual University Fencing Team Banquet, held at the "Three Musketeers" last night, S. G. Huntington Jr., 1924, was elected Captain for next year, with H. A. McGuire, 1924, Manager. C. H. Blatchford Jr., 1925, was announced as winner of the Managerial Competition, with W. F. Roth Jr., 1925, as second. The dinner marked the close of a successful season, especially remarkable in that fencing has developed as a University sport only during the last three or four years.

The program following the dinner included speeches by Captain R. W. Davenport, 1923; A. P. Walker, Captain in 1922; Coach Robert Grasso; J. H. Hanway, Manager in 1922; C. H. Blatchford Jr., 1925, the new Assistant Manager, and S. G. Huntington Jr., 1924, the newly-elected Captain. W. C. Briggs, 1923, acted as Toastmaster.

The main address of the evening was that by Coach Grasso. He congratulated the men on their wonderful success this season and on the fine spirit which they had displayed. He praised the consistently good work of Captain Davenport, and also commended the faithful work of those men who were unable to make the team this year.

C. H. Blatchford, as the winner of the recent competition, will be Assistant Manager next year. W. F. Roth Jr., who was awarded second place in the contest, will act as Freshman Manager during the season.

Debating Team Trials.

Candidates for the University Debating Teams, which are to meet Wesleyan and Amherst in the next league debate, will meet Professor J. C. Adams in Room 2, Lampson, at 4. They should be prepared to talk five minutes on the subject, Resolved, "That the World Court proposal of President Harding deserves the approval of this assembly."

The Athletic Society of Sigma Delta Psi announces the election from the Class of 1923 of George Campbell Becket, of East Orange, N. J.

The New York Spring Horse Show will open at Durand's Riding Academy to-night. There are 200 horses entered up to date.

DATE OF TRACK MEET SHIFTED TO SATURDAY

Conflicting Activities Cause Postponement of Annual Inter-Class Event.

LARGE ENTRY LIST EXPECTED.

Numerals Will Be Awarded For First and Second Places—Usual Fifteen Events Included—List of Officials is Announced.

Because of conflicting activities, it has been necessary to shift the date of the Annual Spring Inter-class Track Meet from Thursday to Saturday. The awarding of numerals for first and second places in each of the usual fifteen events has stimulated a wide interest in this meet and a long entry list is expected. The Track Management has secured a large number of officials, recruited mainly from the Faculty and the R. O. T. C., in order to assure the running off of the various events in an efficient manner.

All undergraduates may enter this meet, the only restriction being that every man must be passed on by the University Department of Health.

Entry blanks may be secured in Yale Station, Byers Hall, and the Track Office and should be promptly filled out. In addition to the numerals awarded for first and second places, gold, silver, and bronze medals will be given to the first three men in each event. Places will also count for the Willisbrook Cup.

A meet of this kind is looked upon by those in charge of track with particular

CONNECTICUT FOOT GUARDS IN CEREMONIES ON GREEN.

Annual Rites of Ancient Command Held in Presence of Governor Templeton Yesterday.

Following the custom of past years, the Second Company of the Governor's Foot Guard of Connecticut held the annual ceremonies on the Green yesterday at 4:15 in commemoration of the granting of their charter and the departure of their command in the Revolutionary War. Governor Templeton of Connecticut and his staff were present for the occasion.

The Company assembled at Center Church at 4:15 and then marched to the City Hall to react the demanding of the keys to the Powder House of the Selectmen. This was done by Lieut. W. L. Mix, a lineal descendant of one of the original company. Following this ceremony, the Yale R. O. T. C., with a battery of thirteen guns, fired salutes.

The guard then marched to the Green, where, after a short drill, they were reviewed by Gov. Charles Templeton and his staff. The sunset gun was fired, and the colors were lowered from the old Liberty Pole. Following this, the guard marched to the Hotel Taft, where the reception and annual banquet were held.

The Second Company of the Governor's Foot Guard was organized on December 28, 1774, and chartered March 2, 1775. It was the first fully uniformed and equipped command to serve the patriot cause, has had a continuous record of service to the present day, and has served the country in every war, as well as given its services to the Commonwealth of Connecticut and the City of New Haven in times of need. It has performed escort duty to distinguished men who have visited New Haven and to the successive Governors of the State at their inaugurations.

Weather for Connecticut—Cloudy and cooler, changing to fair.

CHOICE OF FRESHMEN SHOWS LEANING TOWARD SHEFF.

Broader Courses Add to Attractiveness of Scientific School—297 Enrolled From 1926.

Two hundred and ninety-seven Freshmen, representing 37% of the class, have chosen to take up work in the Sheffield Scientific School next fall, according to the report made public by Dean Roswell P. Angier of the Freshman year. Although 485 men will attend the College, the Sheff. delegation represents an increase of nearly fifty members over last year, when the courses in the school had not yet been broadened to their present extent.

Comparing these figures with those of last year, a considerable decrease in the enrollment of the College is indicated, 503 men having chosen that department from 1725, while 251 went Sheff.

In the past it has been difficult for a Freshman, who has not taken courses, in Freshman Year, leading up to the Scientific School, to specialize in science or engineering, but now the courses leading to the B.S. degree have been made more flexible, by the Governing Board of the School so that, no matter what courses a man takes in Freshman Year, he will be able to enter the Scientific School, without being hampered in his work. The requirements in Yale College and the Sheffield Scientific School are practically the same in year hours: laboratory and field work in the scientific courses make up for the time spent in preparation of the humanities. The appointment of Hudson Bridge Hastings, as Professor of Administrative Engineering has greatly strengthened this course, which gives students a general knowledge of engineering principles.

Faculty Club Meeting.

Members of the Faculty and their wives are invited to attend a meeting at the Faculty Club, at 5, to discuss plans for the coming year.

OCCUPATION OF RUHR TO BE REVIEWED BY MAJ.-GEN. ALLEN.

Commander of American Forces in Coblenz to Speak in Woolsey Hall To-morrow at 8:15.

Major-General Henry T. Allen, formerly of the American Expeditionary Forces, will speak in Woolsey Hall tomorrow at 8:15. He will tell some of his experiences, especially those concerning the Ruhr and the Ruhr question as it stands at the present time. General Allen is in a good position to discuss the economic importance of the Ruhr occupation, for since the spring of 1919 he has been commander of the American Forces in Germany, and his varied military career has given him a thorough insight into economic matters.

General Allen is more than a soldier. He aided in the exploration of Alaska, organized the constabulary system of the Philippines, served in the Mexican Punitive Expedition of 1916, and was stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas, when the war broke out. He went to France almost immediately and served in both the St. Mihiel and the Meuse-Argonne offensives. General Allen is also the author of several books, dealing with military and economic problems.

Dinner For Alumni Fund Agents.

Class agents of the Alumni Fund will meet for dinner at the Yale Club in New York on May 3. At this time of the year progress must be reported by the various agents and it is for this reason that the dinner has been arranged.

George Parmly Day, Treasurer of the University; Minott A. Osborn, and Dean Charles H. Warren, will speak at the dinner.

Nearly 75,000 fans paid $100,000 admission to the Yankee Stadium on Monday. This is the largest crowd ever seen at a baseball game.

NEW HAVEN WALKS AWAY WITH RUBBER GAME 12-3

Profs. Hit Hickey Freely and Take Advantage of Frequent Passes.

SECOND TEAM PLAYS TO-DAY.

Meets Springfield College on Freshman Field at 4:15—Yale Won Second Game of New Haven Series 7-6, After Losing First 3-1.

Scoring four times in the first inning, twice in the second and adding six more tallies before the close of the game, the New Haven Eastern League Team walked away with the third game in the series with the University at Yale Field yesterday, the final count being 12-3. This was the third game of the series, Yale having lost the first 3-1, and won the second 7-6. This afternoon the University Second Team is scheduled to meet Springfield College Second Team at the Freshman Field at 4:15.

The final outcome of yesterday's contest was never in doubt after the first inning. Hickey, who pitched the entire game for Yale, was wild and ineffective, granting eleven passes and being found for thirteen hits. Yale pushed one run across in each of the third, sixth, and ninth innings, but at no other time did a University man get beyond second base. In the third inning Baumgartner hit Hickey and passed Oed. O'Hearn flied out, and then Neale singled to left, giving Hickey barely time to beat the throw at the plate. Hawks went out, Wilson to Bowman, ending the inning.

In the sixth Hawks was passed, Kelley singled to right, and Ewing grounded out to Goff, advancing Hawks to third. He scored on Mallory's sacrifice fly to center field. Wear made the third run in the ninth, getting a free trip to first, taking the next on a wild pitch and scoring on Neale's hit.

In the first inning with New Haven at bat, things began to look bad for Yale, and didn't improve as time went on. With two out, four men had walked, forcing in one run. The bases were full when Mathog poked a long hit into right field. That and Pond's error were sufficient to bring in three men. Two in the second, one in the fourth, three in the seventh, and two more in the eighth made up the total of twelve runs for New Haven.

The line-up of the Second Team this afternoon will be: Connors, cf; Murphy, 3b; Suisman, lf; Burke, 2b; Cook, 1b; Weed, rf; Scott, ss; Lovejoy, c; Finney, Norton, or Williams, p.

MESHED GEARS.

The rising generation of undergraduates finds it difficult to conceive of a Yale which lacked the Common Freshman Year. The friendships formed between members of Ac. and Sheff. when together they first tread the ways of Yale and bear their mutual first year burdens, have brought a constantly closer relationship, which makes the days of rivalry and ill-feeling a relic, well-nigh of barbarism.

The Common Freshman Year, however, is by no means the only link which is adding strength to the chain of closer relationships. Coordination of the two faculties, greater intermingling of students in courses of both schools, to say nothing of other unions, athletic and social, all tend to minimize friction.

The Scientific School has had to face serious changes in the last two years. With the Select Course abolished and a Ph.B. degree instituted in the College, relative enrollment was bound to suffer an alteration, while erection of the Memorial Quadrangle and the Academic location of Freshman dormitories have necessarily had some effect. It is indeed a compliment to Sheff., that in spite of these handicaps, a larger number and larger percentage of Freshmen have chosen the B.S. degree than last year. Two hundred and ninety-seven students will comprise 1926 S., as compared to 247 in 1925 S. The College has undergone, similarly, a loss, this year's 485 falling below last year's 508.

Although co-operation increases, it is improbable and perhaps undesirable that the two schools should merge into one, at least not for several years, because Scientific and Academic departments can probably be conducted more satisfactorily if independent. Nevertheless, the more smoothly the separate wheels turn, and gears mesh without rasping, so will the Yale machine attain that power so sincerely and concordently desired.

COMMUNICATION.

Laws and Justice.

To the Chairman of the News,

Dear Sir:-

In his outcry against Foster and the Herrin miners, A. B. C. conveys the impression that by cluttering the statute books with more laws, or by employing a liberal number of bills of attainder, the courts of law could absolutely prevent miscarriage of justice. However, we suspect that if laws became as numerous as Russian rubles or German marks, it would be no less difficult to protect the innocent and punish the guilty than under the present code.

We submit that the weakness lies not in the inefficacy of existing laws or in the functioning of courts, but in the fundamental and inherent weakness of human flesh.

There is some doubt as to Foster's status. The inalienable right of every American to free speech gives rise to grave problems. However, as long as there is any doubt as to his guilt he is entitled to the benefit of the doubt, and to his freedom. In the United States we do not sentence men on "general principles" or sanction lynch law against those suspected of crime. In the long run the majesty of the law and the impartiality of courts generally assures justice. Unfortunately, there are slips.

The Herrin Case presents an entirely different problem. We do not deny that there was murder, or that thus far there has been no justice meted out. The murderers are undoubtedly known by many eye-witnesses of the tragedy, but all the laws in the world, and the most impartial court could not force those witnesses who either out of fear or inclination refuse to testify.

A. B. C. need not hide his head out of shame for the weakness of American laws and courts. It would be far more profitable for him to lift up his head and seek to do what he can to combat the vicious instincts and the selfish greed of human kind. Not by allusions to Nathan Hale or by appeals to mob vengeance will he bring one hour nearer the dawn of that better day when there will be no need of laws or courts to punish the erring of society, if that day shall ever come.

The Ultimate Platonism.

So much I love you that I fear to kiss you,

For just to touch your fingers is sublime,
And I'd much rather weave a fragile tissue

Of dreams of what it might be like some time.

Then it will seem far sweeter than if wasted

Upon a night so rapturous as this,
For sweetmeats cloy the lips, the more they're tasted—

God grant that I may never spurn your kiss!

So I'll just keep your little hands imprisoned.

Within my own, like poems in a book,

And some day when our love is cold and wizened

I'll dream about that kiss I never took.

Silly sentimentalism such as the above has little excuse for being reprinted in a column which is supposedly devoted to cynical humor and mock-sincere cleverness. Alas! Professor Phelps, the president-maker, has officially frowned on the suggestion that Phi Beta Kappa be awarded to low-stand men for "distinguished service," or something like that. The Key has triumphed over the Curriculum-dodgers, the chewers over the eschewers. A lot of columnists are going to start work on their studies this Spring.

This may change your previous opinion about eating Bran!

YOU may have the idea that bran is to be eaten only because it's good for you—not because you like it.

That's because you never ate Post's Bran Flakes With Other Parts Of Wheat.

Post's Bran Flakes is principally bran with which is retained just the right proportion of other parts of wheat to make the most delicious cereal you ever tasted.

It helps Nature to help you—in the most natural way—with the slightest irritation to the digestive tract.

Eat Post's Bran Flakes just as you would other cereals—with cream or milk. It's a delicious, corrective food.

HARVARD Graduate School of Business

A two-year course in business, open to college graduates, leading to the degree of Master in Business Administration

Points of interest regarding the Harvard Business School:

1. The above graph shows the growth in enrolment and the large number of students coming from institutions other than Harvard. During the present year 158 colleges are represented.
  2. The case method is used. Actual problems obtained from business are used as the basis of instruction. A staff of investigators is constantly at work gathering problems.
  3. Business is regarded and studied as a profession.
  4. What the students in the School think of the training which they receive is indicated by the high percentage of eligible first year men who return to complete the course—84 per cent. the present year.
- The enrolment is limited in first year courses.
